Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws

Since many shareholders believe that a majority voting standard for director elections provides shareholders with a more significant role in director elections and makes directors more accountable for their actions, on December 14, 2006 the Board of Directors of the Company amended Section 1.7 of Article I of the Company's By-Laws to change the voting standard for director elections from a plurality standard to a majority standard and to make certain related changes thereto, to read in its entirety as follows:

SECTION 1.7. VOTE REQUIRED TO TAKE ACTION.

(a) If a quorum exists as to a matter to be considered at a meeting of shareholders, action on such matter (other than the election of Directors) is approved if the votes properly cast favoring the action exceed the votes properly cast opposing the action, except as the Corporation's Restated Articles of Incorporation or the Indiana Business Corporation Law require a greater number of affirmative votes.

(b) Each Director to be elected by shareholders shall be elected by the vote of the majority of the votes cast with respect to that Director's election at any meeting for the election of Directors at which a quorum is present, provided, however, that Directors shall be elected by the vote of a plurality of the votes cast at any meeting of shareholders for which the Secretary of the Corporation receives a notice that a shareholder has nominated a person for election as Director in compliance with Section 2.11 of these By-Laws (an election occurring at any such meeting, a "Contested Election"). For purposes of this By-Law, a majority of votes cast shall mean that the number of shares cast "for" a Director's election exceeds the number of votes cast "against" the Director's election (with "abstentions" and "broker nonvotes" not counted as a vote cast either "for" or "against" that Director's election). If Directors are to be elected by a plurality of votes cast, shareholders shall not be permitted to vote against a nominee for Director.

(c) In the event an incumbent Director fails to receive a majority of the votes cast in an election that is not a Contested Election, the Director shall promptly tender his or her resignation to the Board of Directors. The Governance and Nominating Committee, or such other committee designated by the Board of Directors pursuant to these By-Laws, shall make a recommendation to the Board of Directors as to whether to accept or reject the tendered resignation of such incumbent Director, or whether other action should be taken. The Board of Directors shall act on the tendered resignation, taking into account the committee's recommendation, and publicly disclose (by a press release, a filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission or other broadly disseminated means of communication) its decision regarding the tendered resignation and, if such tendered resignation is rejected, the rationale behind the decision within 90 days following certification of the election results. The committee in making its recommendation and the Board of Directors in making its decision each may consider any factors and other information that it considers appropriate and relevant.

(d) If the Board of Directors accepts a Director's tendered resignation pursuant to this By-Law, or if a nominee for Director is not elected and the nominee is not an incumbent Director, then the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may fill the resulting vacancy or may decrease the size of the Board of Directors, in each case, in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws.

Cummins changes to majority voting standard for Board elections
-- Move strengthens corporate governance; gives shareholders greater voice -

The Cummins Inc. (NYSE: CMI) Board of Directors has voted to amend the Company's corporate by-laws to strengthen the voting standard to elect Directors. The Company has moved from a plurality standard to a majority voting standard for electing Directors.

Under the new standard, candidates for Director must earn a majority of all votes cast. Should a Director fail to receive a majority, he or she must tender their resignation, which will be acted upon by the Board within 90 days of the election. Previously, candidates only needed to receive the most votes among all those running for a given Director's position. The plurality standard will still apply in contested elections.

Cummins has a nine-member board that includes seven outside Directors, in addition to Cummins Chairman and CEO Tim Solso and Cummins President and Chief Operating Officer Joe Loughrey. All Cummins Directors are elected annually.
